LIBRARY FACTS

Will W. Alexander Library

The Will W. Alexander Library is the major educational support service unit located next to the Lawless Chapel. The library was erected in 1961, to provide an environment conducive to study and research for students, faculty, and staff. Resources to support this purpose include small group study rooms, individual study carrels, computers and Internet access.

The library encompasses 31,511 square feet, has a seating capacity of 350, contains a collection of 105,128 volumes, 1,150 microfilms and a video collection of over 320 items to support the information needs of our patrons. The library's holdings offer a broad range of services to the Dillard community including: circulation; reserves; reference; information literacy classes; technical services; and Archives and Special Collections.

The Online Computer Literacy Center (OCLC) and Southeastern Library Network (SOLINET) link Alexander Library to libraries throughout the United States for interlibrary loan, shared cataloging and shared collection (eBooks). Alexander library is a member of the Louisiana Library Network consortium (LOUIS). The library provides electronic access to over 8,000 full text journals. Access to full-text journal articles and abstracts are provided through Lexis-Nexis, ProQuest, EBSCOhost, and Journal Storage (JSTOR)

Users gain access to the library's collection through the Dillard University web based online public access catalog.
